Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (82 per cent per annum) over continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £700,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 93 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1863 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £816,070 is real and substantial property;" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1864.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The hot weather has at last set in, and straw hats are in great demand. Several parties are anxious to know what about the cheap ice, but we are not in a position to give any information on the subject. We believe a couple of cargoes are expected, and that our friend, Mr. Demarchi is freezing away in the Plaza Once.

Shearers in the camp are nearly as scarce as lighters in the outer roads. A gentleman from Chascomus informs us that the farmers are paying at present as high as seventy dollars per hundred. It has rained in torrents out at Chascomus, and the camps look beautiful North, South, East and West.

The Spanish Minister seems to have turned his attention to the presentation of the claims of his countrymen against the Argentine Government. It is rather an unpleasant topic for a Minister to select on his taking office, but owing to the non-existence of a Spanish Minister here, these claims have greatly accumulated. The Argentine Government has very properly acceded to his Excellency's request, and appointed a committee to inspect and report on these claims.

Don Mariano Cabral has resigned his post as Government Escribano. This is a most lucrative post. We have not learned the name of his successor.

The Pavon arrived yesterday, but brought us no news of importance from the interior. Several persons connected with San Juan expected to have received letters, but either there is something wrong with the post, or the gold fever is at such a height that no one has time to write. No letters have been received, and people who believe in the gold are more sanguine than ever.

A party of foreigners will shortly start for the diggings. They are determined to explore the interior, and if there is gold to have it.

The Echegaray grant of land has caused great attention in Europe, and it is thought that a company will be formed in Liverpool to send out ten thousand Irish families to settle on the land in question, which, we are informed is some of the finest in Cordova.

We have received a small sample of the Angora goat wool which is so highly valued in Europe, and which it is intended to introduce as a staple in the River Plate. Those who take an interest in these matters can see the wool or hair in question by calling at this office.

The city is full of false paper dollars, tens, twenties, fifties, hundreds, and two hundreds. We caution our readers. It is very easy to detect the spurious notes, as the ink is very light, the paper bad, and they want the water-mark. As there is a very large number of sovereigns in circulation in Buenos Ayres, we extract from a London paper a notice respecting false sovereigns detected in the Bank of England. The imitation is so good that they were hardly detected in London.

We had no news from Montevideo yesterday, but the last we heard from that quarter was that all hands were busy making fortifications, and a most determined resistance is anticipated when the Brazilians attack Montevideo. Flores' army, when last heard of, was at a place called the "Burnt Bullock Cart," a rather appropriate name. The arrest of some Spanish clergymen caused a great noise in the Mount. They were taken up for going out to see Flores when he was near the town.

There is a rumor that the Oriental Government has asked for the protection of France, England, and Italy against Flores and the Brazilians. The latter, it is said, has promised it. Victor-Emmanuel, it seems, takes a great interest at present in the River Plate.

The extension of the Northern Railway to the Tigre is rapidly progressing. We are informed Mr. Mills has got the contract, and that he has not even to wait for the arrival of rails, having been fortunate enough to get a loan of as much as he requires. We may therefore calculate that very shortly the trains will be running out to the Tigre.

The Rev. Mr. Carter, American pastor, leaves to-day for Rosario, where he purposes establishing an American church and school.

The petition to Earl Russell, against Mr. Parish's removal, was forwarded last night by supplemental mail to England. Owing to the short notice which was given, respecting this document, the signatures were not as numerous as could be wished, but we understand that a duplicate petition will be kept open until the sailing of the French packet, so all those who have not already signed will have an opportunity.

Mr. Fonblanque is the name of the gentleman who has been named to succeed Mr. Frank Parish. We understand that he was formerly British Consul in Belgrade.

Mr. Younger of Barracas has got two cotton gins working by steam at his establishment near the Riachuelo.

Dr. Veles Sarsfield has been named to compile the new Argentine Civil Code, which we suppose will be called "Code Mitre."

Over twenty streets are at present blocked up, the Municipality having at last ordered them to be repaired.

Graham Gilmour, Esq., Argentine Consul in Glasgow, purposes reading a paper on the Argentine Republic, as a field for British emigration, at the next meeting of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science.

A TRIP TO THE OUTER ROADS.

Capt. Pim, the popular captain of the Liverpool steamer Paraguay, having kindly invited us to visit his steamer, we determined to accept the invitation, having the double object in view of visiting the Outer Roads after an absence from that locality for many years, and also to inspect our friend's vessel, which has the honor and good fortune to be the first steamer laden with bales of native grown Argentine cotton for Liverpool.

Many of our readers will naturally say, what is there to be seen in the Outer Roads that can interest the public? But we view the matter in a very different light, and think that there is no truer index of the state of things in Buenos Ayres, in even the whole Argentine Republic, than in the Outer Roads.

Calles Peru, San Martin, and Florida are fashionable streets in town, but the great commercial street of Buenos Ayres is the Outer Roads, and high though the rents of houses may be in the city, they are as nothing compared to the rents in the Outer Roads.

It is a mystery to us how Buenos Ayres, cursed as it is with the most inconvenient port, supplied with the most negligent and tedious system of lighterage, has increased so much in her foreign trade.

People in town like to look from the mole head and point to the number of ships in the Outer Roads; they ask, what other South American Republic has such foreign commerce? but we most unhesitatingly insist that the great opprobrium of Buenos Ayres is the Outer Roads. The business of this place has undoubtedly increased; within the last decade the shipping in the Outer Roads has quadrupled. In any other country under the face of the sun the government woud have adapted itself to the increase in trade, but here in Buenos Ayres we are always the same old 6s. 8d.

Ask the captains of the vessels in the Outer Roads what they most require:

Do they want cargo?
Do they want freights?
Do they want seamen?
Do they want charters?
NO!!

They all shout, "Send us Lighters—Lighters—Lighters." A fine day there is no wind, the lighters cannot come off—a rough day, it is blowing too hard, the lighters are afraid to come out—a middling day, the lighters are too scarce, none can be had—and when, may we surmize, will there be some remedy afforded? For years and years the nuisance has been so increasing that if the Government does not at once stir itself every importing house in town will have to imitate Messrs. Peto & Betts, and have their own lighters and steam tug.

The steamer Paraguay is one of the finest screw steamers that ever rode in the River Plate. Her accommodations for passengers would astonish our readers in Buenos Ayres. The first cabin is a spacious saloon, having state rooms on each side, and capable of accommodating from 30 to 40 passengers: her second cabin is smaller, but almost as neatly fitted up; and for steerage passengers, she has separate cabins for families, good berths, and an airy cabin. In fact, we doubt if on the Liverpool and New York line greater convenience is afforded than on the Liverpool and River Plate line, to which the Paraguay belongs. She is supplied with two steam hoists, which greatly facilitates her in loading and unloading. The dimensions of this splendid steamer are as follows:—

Length, 280ft.; beam, 40ft.; depth of hold, 24ft.; tonnage, 1210 register; steam power, 180; speed, nine to 10 knots. Built at Newcastle by Messrs. Palmer, in 1864; owned by Messrs. Malcomson, Brothers, of Portlaw, county Waterford, Ireland.

Parties about to return to Europe, should avail themselves of the present opportunity. The fares are extremely reasonable: first cabin, £35; second cabin, £25; steerage, £15. We understand that several of our friends purpose returning with our hospitable friend, Captain Pim.

Now, we feel bound to remark, that as the people in Buenos Ayres like to see steamers from Europe entering port, and new lines established, they should at least do something towards supporting them. As yet, the Government of Buenos Ayres has not given one paper dollar towards helping any of the Liverpool steamers. but on the contrary, through the laziness of the lighters, stupidity of our legislators, and neglect of our public men, the expenses incurred by these steamers in the port of Buenos Ayres are so enormous, that if they carried every passenger they could accommodate, every ton of cargo they could hold, still they would barely cover their expenses.

The Paraguay is obliged to remain in Buenos Ayres, for say three weeks or more, and her daily expenses average £50 sterling. The result is, that if we had docks or steam lighters, she could discharge and load in as many days as she now takes weeks.

Frankly speaking, Buenos Ayres does not deserve any line of steamers, if she fails to adopt measures to lessen the delays in port, or reduce port expenses. The Government of Buenos Ayres ought at least to defray half these imposts and expenses; and unless the Government is willing to afford a subsidy of £500 per trip, the sooner all these steamers sail for Hong-kong or Honolulu, the better for the unfortunate and victimized owners.

THE STEAMER PAVON.

One of our oldest and most respected subscribers assures us that many times as he has been a passenger on board the Pavon to and from Rosario, her arrangements have never surpassed the present: the officers commanding in every department are a security for the statement. Capt. Siches is a man of education, a practical engineer and a gentleman. Mr. Gallagher, her engineer, is too well known to be commented upon, and her 'mayordomo,' late of the Hotel la Paz, is untiring in his exertions for the comfort of his passengers: he declares the two last trips he was on board, that the dinner was a banquet to anything he ever saw on board any steamer to or from Rosario.

VIATOR.

PETITION TO THE HOME OFFICE.

Buenos Ayres, Oct, 29, 1864.

To The Right Honorable Earl RUSSELL, K.G., etc., etc., etc.; Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs:

The undersigned British Merchants and residents in Buenos Ayres have learned with the greatest regret the intended removal of Her Majesty's Consul, Mr. Frank Parish, from his post in this city, on promotion to the Consul-Generalship in Cuba.

Fully impressed with the kindness of the motives which have induced your Lordship to confer this honor upon Mr. Parish, we nevertheless feel pained at the prospect of his departure from this country, where his thorough knowledge of its people, language and institutions, no less than the "prestige" attaching to his name, for his own sake and for that of his father, have enabled him to render the British community so many important services, both in his official and private capacities.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES.

ROSARIO.

The 'Ferro-carril and Rosario,' date to the 28th inst. Signor Lelini, and others of the opera company, are expected from Buenos Ayres to give a series of performances. A man named Sebastian Juarez has been condemned to death for the murder of Asencio Baldez on the 4th of July last, at Cañada Cabral. Small pox has broken out with great fierceness among the children of the town. The Club Libertad is to hold a meeting to-day. The concession of Messrs. Wilken and Vernet has been duly ratified by the Government and Legislature, for the establishment of a colony of 1,250 persons, with 50,000 sheep and 4,000 cows on the San Javier frontier: the concession includes 100 square leagues, or over half a million acres of land.

The bullock-carts from the interior are as slow as ever: a troop of 10 carts from Cordoba, with 152 bars copper and 42 rolls tobacco, was thirty days on the road (six miles per day). A troop of 40 carts left Tucuman on August 4th (84 days on the road), and had not yet arrived.

The 'Rosario' relates an outrage committed on D. Telesforo Garcia by a number of policemen, who broke into his house in the dead of night and frightened his aged mother into fits.

REVOLUTION IN SALTO—INDIAN INVASION.

We have the 'Actualidad' to the 4th inst. On the previous night a mutiny broke out in the barracks, the ring-leader being Sergeant Lucero, who, with six corporals and soldiers of the 8th battalion, had been suborned by Napoleon Uriburu. Their object was to liberate the prisoners under arrest for a previous mutiny on September 8th, but they were luckily surprized and overpowered by the Colonel and officers and placed in irons. For some days this outbreak was expected, and the citizens had armed themselves to maintain order, and on the evening in question assembled in the Plaza.

A serious conflict has arisen between the Governor of Colony Rivadavia on the Bermejo and the Franciscan mission of civilized Indians in the Chaco frontier. More than a year ago the colonists murdered an Indian under shocking circumstances, and the authorities refused to punish the criminals, since which there has been a feeling of hostility, and it would seem that of late the Indians made reprisals. The chief of the colony, one Melecio Frias, hereupon resolved to avenge himself on the Franciscan friars whom he supposed to be instigators of the Indian outrages: he accordingly set out with a body of armed men, burnt the house of Padre Francisco, and would have killed the missionaries but that a crowd of Indians fell upon him, and routed his valiant guard with a volley of arrows.

Frias applied to the authorities of Salta for a reinforcement of 50 men, writing on September 25th that an immense multitude of Indians had surrounded the colony and driven in the furthermost settlers, threatening to annihilate the colony for the injury done to their beloved Fathers. On the 1st inst. the Franciscan Prior at Salta despatched Padre Luigi Rossi to investigate and arrange the difficulty. A force of 50 men was got together, but no arms were at hand, and Frias again entreated help, as death and destruction were imminent. The press of Salta had the most slanderous and anti-Christian attacks on the Franciscans, ascribing to them all the blame, whereas the author of the disorder was the ruffian Frias, who invaded a territory beyond his jurisdiction to exterminate the friars with fire and sword. It seems the colony was formerly garrisoned by a company of dragoons, which was disbanded when the 8th Battalion was ordered to that station, but the latter having mutinied, never reached its destination. We think, however, there would be no necessity for a garrison, if the Fathers were left to manage the Indians. What garrison have the Fathers, except the love and obedience of the converted savages among whom they live?

SANTIAGO DEL ESTERO.

We have the 'Norte' to the 9th inst. The Bishop of Salta contemplates making a tour of his diocese to administer the sacraments, as the inhabitants on Rio Salado have not seen a minister of religion for over 50 years! On the 3rd inst., a group of Indians were christened at Santiago with great pomp, a military band attending, with a large crowd, on the happy occasion.

SAN NICOLAS.

This town is now perfectly quiet, a lull having set in. The only thing spoken of is the projected bridge over the Arroyo Medio. Sor. Carranza gave a grand party which is said to have been unusually brilliant. The Club Pueblo commissioner, Sor. Zaracondegui, had not returned from his mission to Governor Saavedra. On his downward trip he was obliged to land at San Fernando, owing to the weather, and proceed to Buenos Ayres by rail.

ENTRE RIOS.

The 'Porvenir' of Gualeguaychú, 26th inst., gives full details of the recent victory of Servando Gomez over the rebels Moyano and Castro. The latter force was about 1,000 men, of whom were left dead on the field 10 officers and 200 men, the victors took 41 prisoners. Castro was slain and Moyano wounded in the arm, the Government loss being only 6 killed, including Captain Carneiro. Servando Gomez having destroyed all the rebel cavalry north of Rio Negro, was marching southward to engage Flores in person.

Mr. George Percy gave a dinner to 40 ladies and gentlemen at Gualeguaychú on the occasion of his removing from that town.

A great religious function took place at Tala on the 10th inst.

The "Uruguay" of the 25th gives account of a ball at the Governor's house which was well attended. The Insurance Co., Bienhechora, at Concepcion, is picking up many subscribers: Gen. Urquiza 51,000$, Dr. Conyngham jun., 1,000$; Mr. Brown, 2,500$; Mr. Cook, 500$, and others, making up $150,000.

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE ROYAL MAIL STEAMPACKET COMPANY.

This very prosperous company has in construction no less than five new steamers.

Two are to replace the Magdelena and Parana. The first of these will not return to Brazil, the voyage she is at present making being her last, and the latter will only make one or two voyages more.

The new steamers are to be all screws, of more or less 3,000 tons register, and of an average speed of 13 miles. One is to be ready at the end of December, and the other in the beginning of next year.

The smallest of these steamers is to take the place of the Mersey for a short time, i.e., while she goes home to be repaired.

The state of the company is so flourishing, that the shares are quoted at a premium of 500 per cent. The great quantity of specie shipped lately, is a source of great gain to the company. The last two packets to the West Indies, took no less than three millions sterling, the freight on which is the insignificant sum of thirty thousand pounds.—Telegrafo.

THE CAPTURE OF THE FLORIDA.

The French Packet Bearn announces having sighted two steamers at 11 a.m. on the 12th inst. about 5 miles off the Recife near Bahia steering northward, which are supposed to have been the Wassuchett and Florida.

The commander of the Confederate privateer sent to the President of Bahia, a protest in the name of his Government for the outrage perpetrated in Brazilian waters and under the Imperial batteries, reserving for President Davis to exact satisfaction as he may think best. In stating the particulars he mentions that his vessel was anchored between a Brazilian war-steamer and one of the forts, while half his crew were ashore procuring provisions and making repairs during the 48 hours allowed him. He demands passports for himself and the commissary to take passage in the English packet, and for 3 officers and 68 men to follow in the British barque Linda.

The 'Correo Mercantil' of October 21st, gives the very amusing and disgraceful notes of the Brazilian commanders, explaining why none of the forts or of the three Imperial war vessels fired on the Wassuchett.

The commander of the Januaria fired as much as he could, but without effect as he was afraid of destroying properties on shore.

The Paraense could not fire at all, the night being very dark, for fear of hitting the merchant ships in port.

The Monte-serrat was also prevented, although the guns were ready, the English barque Favorita being right in the way.

The Rio Contas had her guns ready for action, but left the two other corvettes to settle the matter.

The Fort Gamboa did not fire, as the darkness prevented taking aim, but seeing a gun fired from Fort Mar the commander thought something was wrong, and was deterred from firing in that direction lest he should disable the fort.

The commander of Fort Mar, hearing a gun from the Januaria, thought it was a fire, and ordered signal lights for help to be shewn. Hearing two other guns with shot he could not imagine what was up, and went to bed until daybreak, when he saw the American steamers off the bar.

COUNTERFEIT SOVEREIGNS.

A few counterfeit sovereigns of a rather dangerous character have within the last week been detected at the Bank counters. They are made of gold, but of an inferior quality, being 2 carats 17/8 grains worse than standard gold, of which the genuine sovereigns are made; that is to say, instead of having 9167 parts of pure gold in 10,000 they have only 8138 parts, which makes them only worth about 17s. The coins are new, but seem to have been purposely soiled, to give them the appearance of having been worn in circulation. They have more of the greenish-yellow colour of pure gold than the genuine sovereigns, with the exception of the old George and Dragon pieces. All of them are struck from one pair of dies One of these dies, the reverse, is cracked in two places, and the coins have been touched up by a hand-tool, after striking in the press; and the effect of the crack, which runs diagonally upwards, through the Scottish quarter of the shield, and through the E of "Regina." is in this way, from some of them, partly removed, although sufficient remains for the purpose of detection. In the Irish quarter the harp is almost erased by this after-manipulation, and the consequent smoothness and want of definition strike the eye at once. The quality of the engraving is coarse, and does not appear to be the work of a person accustomed to engrave coin dies. The lettering particularly is roughly executed by an unpractised hand; yet, after all, the imitation is sufficiently close to deceive on a casual inspection. The sound, which is dull and wants the sharp clink of the true sovereign, is one of the best means of detection to those accustomed to the ring of the genuine metal. It is not apprehended that they are many in circulation, and, indeed, the whole facts point to operations on a limited scale.

PROGRESS of the WAR in AMERICA.

A strong belief prevailed at New York on the morning of the 10th of September, when the steamer Edinburgh sailed for this country, that General Lee and General Grant were concentrating their respective forces at Petersburg, and that a great battle was about to be fought. The object of the battle was said to be the possession of the Weldon Railway; and if the rival generals were really collecting their forces at that point, the possession of that line of railway was probably only one of the objects involved in the expected battle. If Lee was about to fight such a battle as that anticipated, it would become a struggle for the whole of the position to the south of Petersburg, and would probably lead to very important results to one or both of the contending armies.

The accounts from the Shenandoah Valley state that the positions of the hostile armies in that district appeared to be unchanged. But previous accounts stated that a considerable portion of the Confederate army had been withdrawn and sent to Richmond, whilst those that remained were merely holding a defensive position, to occupy the attention of the Federal army, and were prepared to retire up the valley if seriously pressed by Sheridan. Very little is really known of the movements of the Confederate troops; and if Lee was about to make a great attack it was by no means certain whether it would be on the army of Grant for the purpose of driving it from Richmond, or on the army of Sheridan for the purpose of forcing a way to Washington, and thus, by a roundabout process, compelling Grant to abandon the attack upon Richmond. As we have already stated, Lee possesses much greater faculties for concentrating his forces suddenly, either in the neighbourhood of Richmond or the neighborhood of Washington, than Grant, having the command of all the Virginian railways to the north of Richmond, which extend within a very short distance of Washington. His plans may therefore be regarded as very uncertain until they are developed by the actual movements of his army. He is not likely to have given the Federals such ample means of judging of his policy as they claim to possess.

Accounts from General Hood state that he has established his head-quarters at Lovejoy Station, which is between five and six miles of the scene of the recent battle. He reports that Sherman withdrew from his front on the night of the 4th. We have the same information from Washington, with the additional information (if such it can be called) that the War Department there, up to the night of the 7th September, was without any dispatches from the Federal forces at any place south of Nashville. It was supposed at the War Office, at Washington, that it was Sherman's design to withdraw his advanced columns for the purpose of giving his army some rest in Atlanta, of establishing himself securely there, and of restoring his railway communications, which, we are now officially informed, had been broken by the Confederate generals Wheeler and Forrest.

ANOTHER CONFEDERATE CRUISER.

On Saturday the following was received at Lloyd's from an agent attached to the Salvage Association, who had just arrived from Bremerhaven: — "Friday, Sept. 9.—A large steamer is reported to have put into Nieudiep on Saturday, with French colors flying, for a pilot. A boat put out and put one on board. The steamer then came out under Prussian colors, and on reaching Bremerhaven again changed colors and hoisted the Confederate flag. The pilot who took her to Bremerhaven believes she still remains there. She steamed ten knots at half speed, and is reported to be under the command of Capt. Semmes (late of the Alabama), with 300 men on board, and the frigate is pierced for forty guns. She is said to have been built at Bordeaux, where there are three similar vessels in the course of building." The agent of Lloyd's Association adds that the above information was volunteered by the pilot who took her to Bremerhaven.

MEXICO.

The Emperor Maximilian left the City of Mexico on the 16th ult., for a tour of inspection in the interior, during which he will visit all the principal towns in the Empire. In his absence the Empress acts as Regent, with a Council of State consisting of two of the principal Ministers. Before the Emperor's departure he issued Decrees throwing open to commerce all the ports of the Empire, and appointing commissions for the organisation of trade, public works, and public instruction. Juarez has fled the country and sought asylum at New Orleans. There were still some armed brigands in the field under the command of Juarist officers, but in two engagements with numerically very inferior French forces, two of these bands of marauders were cut to pieces, and in all likelihood a few months more will see an end of their wicked and useless attempts to keep the country in hot water. The Mexicans have had enough of anarchy, and having begun to taste the happiness of peace and good government under an independent Monarchy, they will speedily make short work of it with the miscreants who are making patriotism a pretext for living upon public plunder.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SPEKE, THE AFRICAN EXPLORER.

Corsham, Wilts, Friday.

Captain Speke, the celebrated African explorer, while shooting yesterday in this neighbourhood with his relative, G. Fuller, Esq., of Neston Park, near this place, on getting up a stone wall, accidentally shot himself. His relative seeing the captain fall ran up to him, and found that the charge had passed through his chest close to the heart. He was only sensible for a few minutes, and feebly said to Mr. Fuller, "Don't move me." He died in about ten minutes. A surgeon was quickly on the spot, but life was extinct. The captain was 38 years of age and unmarried,—Herald.

The great uncertainty which exists as to the measures the Government and Bank intend to adopt, respecting the burning of the paper money, prevents parties from purchasing or selling on time. Many persons believe that the Bank has not twenty-four millions of currency disposable; but this seems to be erroneous, as we are assured by one of the Directors of the Bank, that it holds more than double that amount in the vaults. We all agree that the burning of the currency should be continued; but such a wholesale sweep as twenty-four millions, at the present moment, will cause the greatest commercial inconvenience.

The National bonds still keep falling: a sale of four thousand was made to-day at 37. In the North Plaza there were three cart loads of good wool sold at $105, and in the South Plaza a larger quantity realized $100.

There were no charters to-day.

We extract the following from the 'Liverpool Mercury':—

"The failure of a few weak houses continues to be recorded. For instance, Messrs. Crosky & Co., railway contractors, have suspended, with debts and liabilities of £100,000, and assets principally locked up in foreign concessions. The other establishment connected with Messrs. Croskey & Co., (Messrs. Manuel & Brillman), has been brought down to-day through adventures out of their general course of trading as diamond merchants. The debts and liabilities will be larger for their position, and the assets are not likely to produce favorable results."

This beef took the Gold Medal at the London Exhibition: bales of it are on sale at Ramayon's Store, 35 Paseo Julio, and 97 Calle Peru. Among the kinds most favorably received is fresh mutton with the ribs, which is a most delicate article, and becoming very popular in Rio Janeyro.

It is advisable for merchants and farmers to aid this branch of industry, which promises to attain great importance in the River Plate and Brazil.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

UNPARALLELED POPULARITY.

The wonderful cures effected by these unequalled remedies in all parts of the world have won for them their present favour. Both Pills and Ointment are compounded of ingredients which purify at the same time that they strengthen. No one can deny that health depends upon pure blood and the natural action of the natural organs. Both objects are effected without risk or danger by Holloway's medicament, which are as innocent as they are potent. Internal disorders and external blemishes succumb to their power. These remedies are applicable for the relief of the commonest complaints, are no less adequate to deal safely with the most formidable and dangerous diseases that afflict mankind.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103. Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P.p. Mauá and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
